LOCAL AUTHORS WEEK 3

NEW TECH COLLECTION 12

SPRING GARDENING 14
What’s a maker? You, if you’re a tech enthusiast, crafter, tinkerer, hobbyist, engineer, author, or artist! This issue we’re celebrating makers of all ages and interests with a guide full of new events, activities, and gadgets to spark your imagination.

Check out the featured events below, mark your calendar for the first annual Stark Mini Maker Faire® on May 6th, and then be sure to explore the rest of this issue for more maker fun.

Part science fair, part county fair, and part something entirely new, Maker Faire is an award winning, family friendly event celebrating technology, education, science, arts, crafts, engineering, food, sustainability, and more. Come join the fun as we launch this first annual event.

Even better, be among the first to see our new dedicated Maker Space at the Library and explore our technology Smart Spot.

Want to exhibit? Contact Marianna DiGiacomo at 330.452.0665 or mdigiacomo@starklibrary.org

Check Out our New Technology Collection

What’s a Smart Store without the latest technology? Try out these four new tools for working smarter or making your day a little more convenient.

WIFI HOTSPOT
Take the internet home in your pocket! Whether you’re on the road for work, looking to stay connected on vacation, or studying for a school project at home, the wifi hotspot provides instant, free, high-speed internet access almost anywhere that you can get a cell signal.

KILL-O-WATT
ELECTRICITY MONITOR
Kill-o-watt can help you reduce your power bill and find the energy hogs in your house. Simply insert it between any appliance and your outlet to get a friendly display of the power usage. It’s smart to be green!

SPECK
AIR QUALITY MONITOR
Poor air quality is a serious health problem. Speck detects fine particulate matter in your indoor environment that you may not even realize is there. Plug it in and the large display begins reporting your air quality and provides continual feedback of changes. Download the free mobile app and connect to explore your data even further.

WIRELESS PRINTING
@ THE LIBRARY
Need to print an important document? Now you can upload the file on your laptop, tablet, or smart phone to the color printer at any branch location – from anywhere in the world. Once you arrive, just enter your ID at the printer and your document will print right out (we do charge a small fee for paper costs).
