Stark County District Library and Stark Parks Present Sippo Lake Monsters

July 9, 2014 –Stark County District Library Perry Sippo Branch and Stark Parks will present Sippo Lake Monsters on Thursday, July 31, from 3-4 p.m. This free program is for children in third through eighth grades. Participants will explore some of the fascinating hidden creatures that live in the waters of Sippo Lake. Registration is requested by calling 330-477-8482 or online at www.starklibrary.org/calendar-search.

Families who wish to broaden their exploration of Ohio wildlife can place a hold on one of the library's new Stark Parks Packs, borrowable backpacks complete with everything you need to study the plants and animals in your own backyard. There are four different packs, focusing on birding, plants, wildlife tracking, and creepy crawlies. Park packs may be reserved by visiting www.starklibrary.org and searching 'Stark Parks Packs.'
