Celebrate National Poetry Month with the Stark County District Library

March 24, 2014 –In celebration of National Poetry Month in April, the Stark County District Library is offering a workshop for area poets. Adults interested in writing their own poems for fun or for serious submission may attend the Adult Poetry Workshop on April 5 from 10-11:30 a.m. in the Innovation Center at the Main Library, 715 Market Ave, N. Facilitated by Dr. Audrey Lavine, participants will be given suggestions and guidance on form, structure and subject matter for poetry. Attendees may bring examples of their work for friendly critique. Please register at www.starklibrary.org/eventscalendar.

Original poems from poets in second grade through adults may be entered in the SCDL 15th Annual Poetry Contest through April 30, see the online form at <http://www.starklibrary.org/poetry-contest-entry-form992>.
