Sports Author and TV Broadcaster Dan Coughlin at Perry Sippo Brach Library March 13

February 28, 2014 –Calling all sports fans! Author and TV sports broadcaster Dan Coughlin will be at the Perry Sippo Branch Library, 5710 12th Street, NW in Canton, on March 13 from 6-7:30 p.m. to discuss his book “Pass the Nuts.” Hear firsthand about the many experiences he’s had, all for the love of the game. The program is made possible by generosity of the Friends of the Perry Sippo Brach Library.

Dan Coughlin, an Ohio native, is an enthusiastic sports writer, covering popular area teams such as the Indians and the Browns. With over 40 year’s experience, Dan has claimed the title of Ohio Sportswriter of The Year not once, but twice. He has also been honored with an Emmy. “Pass the Nuts” is Coughlin’s latest book and follow-up to “Crazy, With the Papers to Show It.” Both books clearly showcase his engaging storytelling abilities. Inside the pages you will discover even more stories about the most unusual, eccentric and outlandish people he’s known in his career as a sports journalist.

Make reservations for this amazing opportunity to spend an evening with Dan Coughlin online at <http://www.starklibrary.org/eventscalender> or by calling 330-477-8482. Seating is limited and he sells out venues regularly, so register early! Of course, both of Coughlin’s books are available to check out at any of your local Stark County District Library locations.
